Overall Leauge Summary

53 Hardley Runners took part in the series (17 ladies & 36 men)
Top 3 ladies; Jane Hodge (39th), Lisa Lewis (55th), Sarah Fitton (64th)
Top 3 Men; Dan Latham (20th), Simon Ibbotson (40th), Matt Casey (58th)
The M70 League was won by Mick Anglim with a 100% ave. percentage of field finish
Jane Hodge was 4th place in the F60's
Lisa Lewis was 8th place in the F50's
Paul Blundell was 10th place in the M50's
Although our F70's did not complete the required 6 events, Chris Harris finished in 2nd place and Ann Bruce-Low in 3rd place
Ann Bruce-Low is our first ever F80 RR10 attendee. We hope the league will include a F80 category next year.
The most improved overall from their first run of the season was Lisa Lewis making a 19.5% improvement
The most improved male from their first run of the season was Andrew Simpson making a 11.6% improvement
The most improved runner overall compared to the 2021 season was Dan Latham improving by 20.51%, partly due to injuries last year.
The most improved lady compared to the 2021 season was Lisa Lewis with a 7.63% Mean PFB improvement to last year.
Mick Anglim is 4th place in the overall RR10 run count table - he has clocked up 198 finishes since 1995
Other runners of note on the RR10 run count: Malc Renyard 173 (9th), Mike Smith 157 (=17th), Jan Anglim 152 (20th)
The highest finishes in a race seen this year were from Alice Rudd 11th Place beating 95.2% of the field and Matt James 12th place (95.3%)
Well done to all those that made their first RR10 outing this year:
